Flivver Catches Grasshoppers. (Sloux City Tribune.)

(Sloux City Tribune.)

Fred Hawkins, a farmer in southern Thayer County, has discovered a new use for the filver. Grasshoppers are plentiful in his section and it is necessary to kill them off now before they can lay their eggs. He attaches to the front of his Ford car a trap-like device made on the principle of a vacuum cleaner. It takes in a thirty-foot swath and will function at any speed up to forty miles an hour. He has cleaned 500 acres of aifaifa by this device and gathered in about three-quarters of a ton of hoppers in the ones over.

in the cottage, but Ed was looking at some Japanese trees cut into odd, groteque shapes and falled to hear.

A tail, bent old mân came ground from the side of the house. "Wan to see the house?" he sailed.

"Why yes." Ed was a bit startied, for they had supposed the place deserted. "Do you live hers."

The answer was prefaced by a chucke, "No, indeed, I just look after the grounds; that's chough to keep two them and the sunchine was full of streams of dust as it lingered on the heavy air.

"Understood that the furniture went with it," said Ed.

"What there is does. There have been only three tooms furnished. Come over to my cottage and I'll give, you acup of tea and tell you the history of that house I you care to humor an oid man.
